

I am greatly saddend by the result of the vote this morning. The voice of the american people should not be quieted. I look forward to protesting this move by three people which will affect millions. I understand that 500,000 people emailed urging a 'no' vote. Does this not matter?

Regretfully,
David Haffner